CAMDEN SUCCESS CONTINUES

RICH BREEDERS' FUTURITY FALLS TO HIS STABLE FOR THIRD TIME IN SUCCESSION.

One-Eyed Colt, Luke, Wins Fifth Running of Rac in Thrilling Finish with Chalmers and Ed Crump-Lexington Meeting Ends.

Lexington, Ky., May 7.—After a stirring race over a fast track, under bright skies and before one of the largest crowds that ever assembled at the Kentucky Association course. Lake, the one-eyed son of Peter Quince and Amy J, this after-noon won the Breeders' Futurity, worth an aggregate of $6,350, for two-year-olds, which was the feature of the card for the closing day of the most successful running meeting in the history of Lexington.

successful running meeting in the history of Lexington.

The withdrawal of Ed Howard, Jefferson Livingston's good colt, because of a slight swelling in one of his legs, left eight of the best youngsters in training to go to the post, two of them, Lindeathal and Ed Crump, carrying the colors of John W.
Schorr, the Memphis brewer, as an entry. The public favored Lake and backed the star of Johncon N. Camden's extensive establishment until he was an equal choice with all of the others. The Schorr entry was the second choice, O. A. Blanchi's Emerson Cochran third, J. S. Hawkins' Chaimers fourth, M. B. Gruber's Sam McMeekin fifth, W.
H. Hewlit's liazzaza sixth, and Raleigh Colston's
La Patrie the least supported.

Most of the stables that intend engaging in the Lonisville racing will be shipped by special train tomorrow. The advance guard of turfmen will leave tonight for Louisville on the Elrod special.

Many of the turf visitors who came here for the closing day's sport and also to view the Kentucky Berby, will motor to Louisville tomorrow.

Today's volume of speculation in the mutuel machines exceeded that of any former day since the introduction of the present betting methods.

E. R. Bradley announced today that Bradley's Cholee would not be a starter in the Kentucky Berby on Saturday because of an injury he sustained to his right foreleg when worked here previous to being shipped to Louisville. At first the injury was not seriously considered, but after his galloy yesterday in Louisville the leg filled considerably-and it has been deemed best not to start him in the big fixture. Black Toney, another of the Bradley eligibles, went wrong in his last start here. It is reported that the members of the Kentucky State Racing Commission, recently appointed by Governor James McCreary will meet in Lexington next Tuesday to organize. At the meeting a chairman and vice-chairman will be elected and a secretary appointed. Several turf matters will also be considered.

All of the officials were congratulated upon the splendid success of the meeting. John T. Ireland, who officiated here as placing judge, has been engaged to preside in the judges' stand at Butte, Mont.

EVERYTHING IN READINESS FOR DERBY DAY.

Tomorrow the Day of All Days in Kentucky So Far as Turfdom Is Concerned-Final Work-outs.

Louisville, Ky., May 7.—Tomorrow is the day of all days in Kentucky, so far as racing is concerned, since the Kentucky Derby has become as important in America as its famous prototype is on the British turf. Everything is in readiness at Chürchill Downs for the enormous crowd which is ture to visit that course tomorrow when Old Rosebud, Hodge, Surprising, John Gund, Constant, Bronzewing, Old Ben, Belloc and Watermelon face starter Harry Morrissey for the fortieth running of this classic event, with an added value of $10,000 this season.

of this classic event, with an added value of $10,000 this season.

It now seems a certainty that these nine threeyear-olds will go to the post and with the prospect of favorable weather and a lightning-fast track, the outcome is likely to be the most sensational race in the long history of the Derby.

All of the stars named above are now quartered at the Downs and so far as health and superb

FORMER WINNERS OF THE KENTUCKY DERBY

When the big Louisville race set for tomorrow passes into turf history forty Kentucky Derbys will have been run. Never until this year made of value commensurate with its importance in public estimation, it is yet in some of its years been contested by horses of high class, famous in American racing annals. It is apsettionable whether in all those years a Kentucky Derby field of equal all-around excellence to that of its irst year has ever gathered at its starting point. In that race fifteen three-year-olds started, of which visitides, Volcano, Ten Broeck, Bob Woolley, Bill Bruce, Searcher, Ascension, Chesapeake and Verdigris were afterwards of great renown and all of such quality and speed as to constitute a band remarkable in any year. Possibly one as good as an Old Rosebud or Hodge might have won that race and just as possibly they would have been unplaced as was the mighty Ten Broeck. Probably Hindoo was the greatest race errse ever started in this event, but such others as Fonso, Leonatus, Dec Otton, Ben Ali, Spokane, Riley, Engman, Halma, Ben Brush, Plaudit, Lieutenant Gibson, Allan-a-Dale and Sir Huon were all horses of great excellence and superb speed, stayers and great winners. Of more recent winners Meridian and Done-rall are both still in training and were record breakers for the race in their respective years. To all appearances some three-year-olds of exceptionally high class are to go to the post this year and, if the track is sast, it may be that another case of record breaking is at hand. The record of the race is as follows:

condition are concerned, none of the lot will have any excuse. Hodge, in the opinion of good judges, is the most thoroughly trained of all the Derby cracks. He had earlier racing than Old Rosebud and has been seen in public more frequently as a three-year-old than the favorite. Since he last raced at Juarez, he has been training wonderfully well under the supervision of his owner, Kay Sence. No three-year-old entered for the Derby can be more fit to run the Thile and a quarter that Hodge. Trainer F. D. Weir seems to be perfectly satisfied with the condition of Old Rosebud and believes that he is as ready to go the Derby route as Hodge or any other of the probable starters. The same applies to trainer Jack Baker with his two catries, Constant and John Gund. R. F. Carman thinks Surprising is ready. Trainer William Walker would have liked to have had a race in Watermelon and so would James MacManus, the owner of Belloc, but both of these three-year-olds are in promising condition as it is. Kay Spence, the owner of Hodge, thinks that Watermelon and Belloc will finish in front of all except Hodge and Old Rosebud. There has never been a Derby which has aroused the interest that centers in the race this season and the winner will undoubtedly turn out to be one of the greatest three-year-olds that has carried colors in the forty years history of this great stake.

Derby works today were:

Old Ben, mile and a quarter in 2:11%. Fractionals: 12%, 25%, 37%, 51%, 1.14%, 1:134%, 1:335, 1:585%. He is now said to be a sure starter, with J. Koderis up. Flying Feet went the first mile with Old Ben.

Bronzewing, mile in 1:46. Fractionals: 12%, 25%, 37%, 51%, 1:47%, 1:17%, 1:31%, 1:324%, 375, 50%, 1:04%, 1:18, 1:31%, 1:04%, 1:10%, 1:

Fractionals: 13, 25%, 38%, 51%, 1794%, 1:18, 1:31%, 1:44%, 1:56%. He ran the last eighth in 114%.

1. F. Carman thinks that in The Turk he owns one of the grandest-looking young sires in the country. He has him located in the stud near Lexington this season and has mated to him his mares—Paradise Queen. Achieve, Daruma and will later on with Horizon. The latter mare he expects shortly to foal to the great Ballot. Paradise Queen has already foaled a handsome chestnut filly by that noted horse. Mr. Carman hopes some day in the near future to own a breeding farm in Kentucky and besides The Turk, he will have in the stud the great Meridian, Kentucky Derly winner of 1911. He probably will retire the latter horse to the stud at the close of the present season. Meridian is training in grand form now and bids fair to add notably to his already brilliant racing record before this year is over.

Captain W. H. Fenchler, treasurer of the Jockey Club Juarez, has arrived to take in the Derby and most of the other racing during the spring season of twenty-five days at the local tracks. His brother, Fred Fenchler, one of the most prominent turfmen in Mexico, is at French Lick Springs, but will come here to see the Derby run tomorrow. Like Captain Fenchler, he will spend much of the spring in Kentucky this year. Captain Fencher says there is no war scare of any moment around Juarez and that superintendent Keegan has well under way the many improvements planned by Manager M. J. Winn at that plant, before he left there last winter.

W. W. Darden, breeder of Hodge and owner of Winn at that plant, before he left there last winter.

W. W. Darden, breeder of Hodge and owner of his sire, Ivan the Terrible, and his dam, Nannie Hodge, has arrived from Nashville for the spring racing season. The Darden string of horses has been at the Downs for a week or more. Mr. Darden is summer. The gelding was entered to be sold for $1,200 and when the race was over no less than seven claims were put in for him. and Kay Spence was the lucky man in the drawing of lots. Mr. Darden thinks Hodge will win the Derby even if there is no extreme pace in the early part of the race. He is of the oinion that at some part of the first mile Hodge can get to Old Rosebud and he says that the son of Ivan the Terrible has beaten every horse he ever hooked up with in the stretch. He thinks Old Rosebud is perhaps a quicker breaker at the post than Hodge, but he is of the opinion that after an eighth of a mile has been in other words whenever he gets well settled in his stride.

I. E. Bogan, agent for the California turfman, Charles W. Clark, who has horses in two stables bere, some being in charge of John Lowe and the others in George Strate's string at the Downs, has arrived for the local racing season. Mr. Bogan went over to Lexington for a day or two to see the Clark broodmares which are quartered near Lexington and are being looked after there by Miss blizabeth Daingerfield. Mary Alicen, the dam of El Palomar, has already foaled a colt by Celt and Valcureuse is expected shortly to foal to the same sire. Cluney slipped a foal by Voter. 'All these mares are to be mated this spring with some of the famous horses now owned by Price McKinney, and it is the intention to arrange for the permanent location of these mares in Kentucky so that their foals will have the benefit of being raised in the blue grass region. Mr. Bogan said that when he left California it was Mr. Clark's intention to visit Kentucky this spring and to spend part of the spring and summer racing season here. He hoped that he would be able to reach here in time for the running of the Kentucky Derby.

ROCK VIEW MAKES AUSPICIOUS DEBUT.

Belmont Four-Year-Old Wins His First Start of th Season at Pimlico Track.

Baltimore, Md., May 7.—Stirring contests were the order at Pimlico this afternoon. Several of the finishes were sensational and much enthusiasm was evinced. The feature race, the Patapseo Steeple-chase, proved one of the best races ever run through the Pimlico field. The nine starters finished the course without mishap and several of them seemed to have a winning chance at some stage of the running. The finish was close between Himation and Rhomb, the official placing giving the former first money. Rhomb was a keen factor from the start, while the rider of Himation avoided the early pace. August Belmont's colors were seen for the first time in some years on a steeplechaser when Mission went to the post in the Patapseo. She ran greenly and took her fences high.

The Jockey Club stewards have evidently been cautioned about stamping out rough riding, for the officials were quick to disqualify the two-year-old Heenan, which finished first in the second race. The colt bumped Lady Capricious at the furlong post in the homestretch. The pair were fighting it out at the time and the interference was probably enough to change the result of the race, as Heenan beat the filly by only a nose. The change in the placing gave Lady Capricious first place, Dixie second and Ethan Allen third.

Brave Cunarder scored for the Bedwell stable when he beat the Belmont colt, Flittergold, a head in the three-quarter mile allowance race. Flittergold set a fast pace in the early stages, but weakened badly when challenged.

August Belmont's Rock View made his first appearance of the season in the closing race, which won in runaway fashion after getting away none too well.

August Beimonts Rock View made his first appearance of the season in the closing race, which he won in runaway fashion after getting away none too well.

W. A. Read, president of the Denver Fair and Racing Association, who raced Kate K, Tommie Thompson and Light O' M' Life at Laural last fall, has purchased three of the horses that Charles Boots has had at Sheepshead Bay since last summer. They will be trained by Louis Feustel, who formerly trained for August Belmont.

Louis Martine and H. Steinbeck were visitors from New York. Mr. Martine has besides his own horses, at Sheepshead Bay, three two-year-olds that Mr. Steinbeck purchased from John E Madden last spring. While here an effort was made to obtain the contract that Ed Nash holds on jockey Nicklaus, but up to this time they have been unsuccessful in that quest.

SALE HIGHLY SUCCESSFUL

FORTY-FOUR CASTLETON-BRED YEARLINGS SELL AT LEXINGTON FOR $72,350.

tar of Sale, a Colt by Voter—Ecstacy, Brings $5,100—James Butler Buys the Brother to Castleton-Gifford Cochran a Liberal Purchaser.

Lexington, Ky., May 7.—In the spring of 1912
James R. Keene permitted the mating of his Castleton stallions—Ben Brush, Delhi, Disguise, Hippodrome, Peter-Pan, Superman, Sweep, Ultimus and Voter—with a number of first-class thoroughbred mares belonging to various breeders with the understanding that the owner of the stallion and the owner of the mare should share jointly in the produce, which it was agreed should be sold when one-year-old. After the death of Mr. Keene, it was agreed between the mare owners and the executors of the Keene estate that the forty-four yearlings resulting from this breeding arrangement should be disposed of collectively under the auspices of the Keene estate that the forty-four yearlings resulting from this breeding arrangement should be disposed of collectively under the auspices of the Kennecky Sales Company. The sale was held last night in Horsemen's Headquarters, with George A. Bain as auctioneer, and it resulted remarkably, inasmuch as the aggregate was $72,350, an average of $1,644, which was considerably above the expectations of most expert judges of probable prices in these parts.

The top price of the sale was brought by the chestnut celt by Voter—Ecstacy, the latter a half sister to The Manager, for which Charles H. Berryman, manager of James B. Haggin's Elmendorf Farm, paid $5,100. Franklin C. Bishop, representing Gifford A. Cochran, of New York, was the largest purchaser. He got eight for $20,450. Price McKinney, bidding for James Butler, of New York, bought seven for $15,600, including the brother to Castleton, and John Miller, bidding for Foxhall P. Keene, of New York, bought six for $13,500, Only nineteen sold for less than $1,000 each and of those only seven brought less than $500 each. Thomas Hodge, of Buffalo, N. Y., bought seven of the cheaper ones for $2,500. The five head held on shares by T. C. McDowell brought $18,250, an average of $3,500. The summary of the yearlings sle follows:

LORD DERBY TAKES THE CHESTER VASE.

So far Lord Derby has not been especially fortunate in English racing this year, but had a turn of good luck last Tuesday when his three-year-old brown colt, Dan Russel, by Chaucer—Hettie Sorrel, won the valuable Chester Vase on the first day of the Chester meeting. This is a dash of a mile and a half for three-year-olds and over of the value of $10,000 and a $500 vase. Mrs. G. H. Plummer's three-year-old brown colt, Colonel Bogey, by Ian—Carnatum, was second, and J. B. Joel's four-year-old bay colt, White Magic, by Sundridge—La Vierge, ran third. Nine started and White Magic was a 6 to 5 favorite, while it was 10 to 1 against Dan Russel and 20 to 1 against Colonel Bogey.

TRAINING GOSSIP FROM CANADA,

Training Gossip From Carada.

Toronto, Ont., May 7.—The mist rolled in from the lake yesterday morning and at times much of the back stretch at Woodbine was hidden from the view of visitors along the front. The track was soft and cuppy in places, but not muddy, though there was a drizzle of rain all morning. The gallops of the Platers were the interesting features. Bechive seems to overshadow everything else, but hotse races are not won until the boys have passed the scales, and the red board is up. So there are plenty of trainers preparing for the defeat of the local The Tetrarch. They don't see just how it is to be done, but their charges will be ready if there is any weakening, and on the job to take advantage of whatever may help their chances.

Beehive had Ondramon for a workmate yesterday, but the big chestnut could not keep up, and when a real sharp work is to be done Hearts of Oak will probably be found accompanying the favorite. Yesterday's gallop was a mile in 1:48%, the first half in 53 and three-quarters in 1:20%. Beehive was only playing.

Following Privet Perlal for three-quarters.

Yesterday's gallop was a man half in 53 and three-quarters in 1:20%. Because was only playing.

Following Privet Petal for three-quarters, Colonel Hendrie's Slipper Day showed three-quarters in 1:17%, and faished out the mile in 1:50%. The boy on Privet Petal lost a stirrup-iron, and could not case him up so readily, his mile being finished in 1:48%, and the mile and an eighth in 2:04%. Slipper Day works in a resolute and impressive manner and will be more than ordinarily useful in her class this year.

case mm up so readily, his mite being missed in 1:48%, and the mile and an eighth in 2:04%. Slipper Day works in a resolute and impressive manner and will be more than ordinarily useful in her class this year.

Mr. Bayles' Gold Bud worked alone and her performance was done handily, half a mile in 50, three-quarters in 1:18%, and the mile in 1:47%. She was third in last year's Plate and is not likely to be worse this year.

Voivode, from the Gorman stable, had an easy mile in 1:55.

The Giddings two-year-old, Harry Bassett II., recled off a quarter in 24 seconds, and three-eighths in 33%, pulling up the half mile in 51%. Alai Bass went behind him.

Other works of the morning were: Calgary and First Sight, three-quarters in 1:17%, mile in 1:47%; Recoil and The Usher, mile in 1:48%; Martian, half in 49, three-quarters in 1:17, and seven furlongs in 1:31, pulling up the mile in 1:46. Wenus Urania and Sarolta, half in 51%; Otero and Martaline, three-eighths in 40; Splutter, Last Spark, David Gillies and Fergus, half in 54%; Red Fire, Odds On and John Peel, accompanied by Tankard, half in 55; Marcovil, mile in 1:55; Jimmy Gorman, three-eighths in 38%.

Trainer Walker has been busy all spring, and the horses are ready for strong work. They will be seen extended about Saturday and are likely to make a good impression. Moss Fox and the two-year-olds Rowe, Agnes Fox and Minnie Fox, were left at home, but the stable has two good Platers in Beau Cheval and Mail Order.

WOODBINE'S SPLENDID ENTRY LISTS

Stakes for Ontario Jockey Club's Spring Meeting Fill in Manner That Assures Usual Brilliant Sport.

Toronto, Ont., May 6.—The entries for the stake events to be decided during the Ontario Jockey Club's coming meeting indicate a great season of spring sport to signalize the opening of the new stand at Woodbine. A total of 400 nominations for the eleven stakes is the declaration of owners in response to the extremely liberal conditions, and every class of race has filled well. Steeplechasing material was supposed to be scanty, but the jumping events have attracted as large an entry as in the palmiest days of the sport, when there was but a fraction of the money to be won that is offered today.

The Canadian-bred and Canadian-owned races show most encouragingly, thirty youngsters, all in active training, being named for the Coronation Stakes for home-bred two-year-olds. The entries by events are:

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Plans are under consideration for a race meet-g at Leadville, Col.

All reports agree that the Havre de Grace meet-ing, just closed, was by far the most successful, in very way, in the history of the Harford Agriculture and Breeder's Association.

Experts say that while the two-year-olds that have een shown so far in eastern racing are a rather heap lot, some prospective good ones are in re-erve and will be seen in action soon.

serve and will be seen in action soon.

Dr. Larrick, a two-year-old in J. S. Tyree's stable, is reported to have worked four and one-half furlongs in 54— at Havre de Grace this week. This is close to the track record for the distance.

W. R. Norvell, who is to serve as racing sceretary for the meeting at Marlboro, beginning June 6, is planning a program that will cater to a better class of horses than have hitherto taken part in the racing at that track.

C. C. Campau has arrived at Montreal to pre-pare for the Delorimier Park meeting, over which he is to preside. He came from New Orleans, his old home, and brought word that the people of Louisiana have practically given up the idea of re-viving thoroughbred racing.

American-owned horses captured two firsts and one second place at La Tremblay, in France, Wednesday. The Prix Citronelle was won by H. B. Duryea's Frizzle, while J. E. Widener's l'Adorable won in the Prix Verneuil. In the latter event August Belmont's Roxanna was second.

The useful nine-year-old horse Running Account, by Compute—Komurasaki, died recently at Electric Park, Baltimore. He was the property of W. F. Redmond and as a young horse gave much promise as a racer. Of late his efforts have been confined to the half-mile tracks. His racing record is sixteen firsts, seven seconds, four thirds and thirty-nine times unplaced in sixty-six starts, with winnings of $8,285.

KENTUCKY HORSEMEN TO ORGANIZE.

Lexington, Ky., May 7.—To the call for a mass meeting of horsemen to protest against Gov. James B. McCreary's action in appointing W. B. Haldeman of Louisville, and Alile W. Young, of Morehead, who are not horsemen, to membership on the Kentucky State Racing Commission, only fourteen men responded at the court house here this morning. They were President Catesby Woodford of the Kentucky Association; Chairman Milton Young, of the present Kentucky State Racing Commission; George H. Whitney, B. F. Guthrie, Dan T. Morris, John D. Carr, Thomas Platt, Barney Schreiber, John B. Todd, W. F. Schulte, Harry Stanhope, Clem Pierce, J. V. Shipp and R. L. Thomas.

Catesby Weodford, in a statement of the purpose of the gathering, made no reference to the governor, the racing commission or any member of that body, but diverted the attempt to put the turf further into the meshes of politics by saying that the object of meeting would be to appoint a committee of five to bring about a strong organization of thoroughbred horsemen and friends to protect racing from the blight of politics which is alleged to have killed it in other states.

George H. Whitney was made chairman and B. F. Guthrie secretary of the meeting. Messrs, Woodford, Young and Schreiber were appointed a committee to name a committee of five to take charge of the matter of forming a permanent organization at a big meeting to be held during the annual sale of thoroughbreds held here next November, and they named Messrs, J. O. Keene, Fred A. Forsythe, Thomas Hart Talbot (member of the Kentucky State Racing Commission), George H. Whitney and J. Keene Daingerfield. The selection of this committee was ratified by those present and the meeting adjourned.

RUNNING OF THE CITY AND SUBURBAN.

RUNNING OF THE CITY AND SUBURBAN.

Twenty horses started in the City and Suburban Handicap and Epson. England, April 22, and of these Maiden Erlegh carried the topweight of 121 pounds and, running its mile and a quarter in 2:055, was the easiest of winners. Few races in England are more popular and with the finest brand of weather helping, an enormous gathering witnessed its decision. Of the race and attendant features. Thanks to the successful intervention of Maiden Erlegh, we were spared an upset in the City and Suburban yesterday, as the victory of either the second or third would have meant disaster. Thanks to the successful intervention of Maiden Erlegh, we were spared an upset in the City and Suburban yesterday, as the victory of either the second or third would have meant disaster. So Josel's horse, as he has so offen let his entire the second or third would have meant disaster. So Josel's horse, as he has so offen let his entire the second or third would have meant disaster the second or the propertion of his hitherto thick and thin followers left him out yesterday. Sun Yat, which rapidly became a strong favorite, ran really well, finishing just out of a place, and thus for once in a way the luck of the brothers Joed was reversed. To what extent Maiden Erlegh's prospects were improved by his being excused from taking part in the parade can only be a matter of conjecture, but the fact remains that he won easily indeed, and at last atomed for a series of exasperating failures which was only broken by a fugitive, though meritorious, victory in the Doneaster Welter Handleap last September Of the other fancied horses vesterday, Warck find Braxted occupying the same terms had finished into the fact occupying the same terms had finished first and second for the Rendlesham Stakes at Kempton Park on Easter Monday, the verdict then being four lengths in favor of Mr. Langlands's colf. Yesterday, however, the tables were turned, Mr. Bower Isnay's son of Marco and Perjuy winning by a half length.

"The Stewards' dec

was passed by Tuxedo and Braxted, the latter pair racing in such close company that Braxted's jacket was hidden from view by that of Lord Carnarvon. Making the bend Maiden Erlegh took the place that Aghdoe vacated, and Sun Yat tried for a situation on the rails, but was disappointed. Tuxedo colapsed beaten three and a half furlougs from home, where just for a stride or two Braxted was in front; but Maiden Erleigh was equal to the occasion from the moment that Walter Griggs asked him to go to the front.

"He was noticed to sprawl a bit once, but collecting himself, he raced out, and with Sun Yat unable to find a clear course, Candytuft stayed on to keep Braxted out of second place, without even troubling Maiden Erlegh, which won in convincing style. Easily, in fact, was his three lengths verifict secured, and instead of the sweating, excitable horse we have before seen him, Mr. Sol Joel's grand-looking five-year-old returned to the unsaddling enclosure with little more than a saddle mark upon him. Wrack ran no better than Drinmore, which never really got into his stride from the start. Royal Weaver showed up for six furlongs, and Aghdoe sustained pressure for a mile before being in trouble. Thistleton wants a little more muscle coaxed upon his frame, but he ran quite respectably."

Winner—B. g, by Wadsworth—Veneta (trained by A. Zimmer).

Went to post at 3:34. At post 2 minutes. Star good and slow. Won driving; second and third the same. W. W. CLARK raced well up in closest pursuit to the stretch turn, where he passed BILLY, BARNES, but had to be hard ridden at the end to outstay HIGH STREET. The latter closed a gap and, finishing fast, was probably best today and lost only through faulty riding at the end. BANK BILL came with a rush through the last quarter. BILLY BARNES tired badly after setting the pace for the first five-eights.—Sidney Hellman, 1 pound.

Went to post at 4:17. At post 1 minute. Start good and slow. Won driving; second and third the same. LUKE, away forwardly, followed CHALMERS closely to the stretch and, standing a hard drive through the last eighth and overhauling him when seventy yards out, outstayed him at the end. CHALMERS, also away fast, sprinted into a good lead at once and, setting a fast pace, tired in the last eighth, but held on gamely. ED CRUMP began on the outside and was forced to lose nuch ground by going wide and was going fastest at the end and probably was best. EMERSON COCHRAN began tangled up and did not get fully settled into his stride until in the stretch, where he came fast. LINDENTHAL dropped out of forward contention in the first quarter. The others were never dangerous, but HAZZAZA ran well to the stretch.
